2021-2022

About the Team

DJS Skylark is a team of Undergraduate Engineering Students. We research, design, analyse and fabricate Radio Controlled (RC) aircraft and compete on an international platform with some of the best universities from around the world. With numerous accolades to our name, we aim to set an example to promote RC Aeromodelling.

Every journey, no matter how difficult or long, begins somewhere, and ours did in 2014. With little to no prior expertise, our founding members embarked on this quest to research and design the team's premier aircraft to compete at SAE Aero Design East in the USA.
